COLUMBIA NEWS.

OUR REGULAR CORKESPONDENCE

Yesterday Mrs. Thomas Swingler attained her forty-sixth birthday and the Citizens' band, determining to commemorate the event, called upon and serenaded the lady last evening at her residence, on Perry street above Second. The members of the band were invited in and refreshments served them.

The Ladies' Aid society of the M. E. church held a sociable last evening in the church parlors, which was largely attended. A literary and musical programme was gone through with, when refreshments were served through the liberality of Mrs. Gen. Win. Patton and Mrs. H. F. Bruner. The receipts of the evening amounted to about , 30. The evening was very pleasantly speat.

Md., a brother of John Fendrich, of this place, the store and cigar manufacturing establishment of the latter, situated at Front and Locust streets, are closed to-day. Prior to this death there were five Fendrich brothers, all engaged in the tobacco business and connected with one another to a greater or less extent, but this irreparable interruption will lower the number by one and witt cause infinite sorrow to the others. The death is reported to have been rather sudden and the news of it reached Columbia at seven o'c lock this morning.

The lectures on "Pilgrim's Progress" by Rev. F. W. Staley of the E. E. Lutheran church, have been postponed for a couple of weeks.

The Worker's society of the Reformed church will give their musical and literary entertainment this evening. Refreshments will be served and a pleasant time is anticipated.

S. C. Swartz has now got his new house entirely under roof.

The weather is cloudy; it looks like rain. Firemen's Convention

The Firemen's Union of Reading, on Monday evening, the 14th, held a meeting to make arrangements for the convention composed of delegates from all volunteer fire companies in the state east of the Alleghenies, to be held in that city on December 16th. The meeting is expected to be a large one, and the visiting firemen will be entertained by the Firemen's Union. The convention will probably be held in the Grand opera house, and the idea is to form a state association of volunteer firemen. While the meeting will be public, none but delegates will be allowed to vote. On the night of the 17th a ball will be given for the visiting firemen. The Lancaster companies will be represented by one delegate each on this occasion, the Empire having already designated A.S. Edwards to rep-

Amusements. Maude Granger .- This gifted artist will appear at Fulton opera house on Saturday even-ing in the play of "Two Nights in Rome," written for her by A. C. Gunter, and described by a no less credible authority than the Washington Republic as "a thrilling melodrama of the new American school, bold in onception and strong in construction, the eading parts being full and round and affording scope for superior dramatic talent." same critic pays a high culogium to Miss Granger's exceptionally admirable rendition of the leading part and says she is supported by a company of uncommon strength.

The " Electric Lights."-This evening W. J. Thompson's variety and dramatic company will appear in the opera house. They will present the drama of "For a Life," in which the principal character is assumed by George W. linompson, who will introduce his two trained dogs. The list of the variety people include some of the best stars in the profession. They are headed by T. M. Hengler, formerly of Delchanty and Hengler, who were among the best song and dance men in the profession. Mr. Delehanty died some time ago, and his partner now travels alone. The Suydam brothers are wonderful bar performers, while Landis and Steele probably have no equals as skaters. Frank White, Carrie White and a number of others are members of the troupe.

Speer's Port Grape Wine. This article of American Wine is highly esteemed by the best physicians in this country. The following is a testimonial we saw from the New York Hospital. We publish it for the information of our readers:

NEW YORK, NOV. 14. I am using Speer's Port Grape Wine and find t to be an excellent tonic and gentle stimulant, and as such I believe it preterable to the commercial Port, and all other wines, as it possesses their tonic properties without the dele-terious effect caused by their impurities. It is also very palatable, and this is a recommendation to many, especially temales. S. S. Harris, M. D., N. Y. Hospital.
